The Collect of the Day

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Priest: Let us pray.

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life in which your Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People: Amen.

The Lessons

Lector: A Reading from The Book of the prophet Jeremiah. (33: 14-16) sit

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will fulfill the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah. In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. And this is the name by which it will be called: "The Lord is our righteousness."

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 25: 1-9

- 1 To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul;
my God, I put my trust in you;
let me not be humiliated,
nor let my enemies triumph over me.
- 2 Let none who look to you be put to shame;
let the treacherous be disappointed in their schemes.
- 3 Show me your ways, O Lord,
and teach me your paths.
- 4 Lead me in your truth and teach me,
for you are the God of my salvation;
in you have I trusted all the day long.
- 5 Remember, O Lord, your compassion and love,
for they are from everlasting.
- 6 Remember not the sins of my youth and my transgressions;
remember me according to your love
and for the sake of your goodness, O Lord.
- 7 Gracious and upright is the Lord;
therefore he teaches sinners in his way.
- 8 He guides the humble in doing right
and teaches his way to the lowly.
- 9 All the paths of the Lord are love and faithfulness to those who keep his covenant and his testimonies.

All: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Hymn 73: "The King shall come when morning dawns"

St. Stephen, stand

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
(21: 25-36)

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, “There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on the earth distress among nations confused by the roaring of the sea and the waves. People will faint from fear and foreboding of what is coming upon the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in a cloud’ with power and great glory. Now when these things begin to take place, stand up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.” Then he told them a parable: “Look at the fig tree and all the trees; as soon as they sprout leaves you can see for yourselves and know that summer is already near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. Be on guard so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and that day catch you unexpectedly, like a trap. For it will come upon all who live on the face of the whole earth. Be alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of Man.”

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

And accept our thanks and praise for all your gifts so generously given, make ready our hearts for your coming, and receive our prayers in the name of the one who comes, your Son, our Savior, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

At the Offertory, Motet

William Byrd (c. 1540–1623)

Vigilate, nescitis enim
quando dominus domus veniat,
sero, an media nocte,
an galli cantu, an mane.
Vigilate, ergo, ne cum venerit repente,
inveniat vos dormientes.
Quod autem dico vobis, omnibus dico:
vigilate.

*Keep watch, for you do not know
when the lord of the house will come,
whether late, at dead of night,
at cock crow, at dawn.
Keep watch, therefore, lest he come suddenly
and find you sleeping.
What I say to you, I say to all:
Keep watch.*

Judith Weir (b. 1954)

Drop down ye heavens from above, And let the skies pour down righteousness.
Comfort ye, comfort ye, my people; My salvation shall not tarry. I have blotted out as a thick cloud thy transgressions. Fear not, for I will save thee; For I am the Lord thy God,
The holy one of Israel, thy redeemer. Drop down ye heavens from above, And let the skies pour down righteousness.

Voluntary: Wachet auf, ich ruft uns die Stimme, BWV 645

J. S. Bach (1685–1750)

(“Sleepers, wake!” A voice astounds us; Hymn 61)

MUSIC NOTES: The splendid five-voice motet Vigilate by William Byrd (c. 1540–1623) has much in common with the music of English madrigal style: an attention-grabbing rising line is heard for the cock crow (“an galli cantu”), the motion slows and becomes drowsy at “dormientes” (sleeping), and the very close (and exceedingly difficult!) imitation at “repente” (suddenly) all contribute to the excitement of this music.

The altar flowers are given to the glory of God
