

Christmas Eve
2019

Celebrations of the Holy Eucharist

6:00 and 11:00 p.m.

Dear Friends in Christ,

Welcome to St. Peter's Episcopal Church on this holy night as we celebrate the birth of our Savior and the incarnation of God into our lives and the world. Wherever you find yourself on your spiritual journey, know that you are welcome here. We believe God is actively present in our world, and we seek to know God through joyful worship, education, service, and fellowship. If you are searching for a church community and would like more information about St. Peter's, please fill out the Visitor's Register in the entry hall, and we will be in touch with you. May the blessing of God's peace be with you during this Christmas season.

Continuing a tradition of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, the Christmas Offering has been designated to support the mission of our outreach partners. Please use the Christmas Offering envelopes in the pews.

The Reverend Luke Jernagan, Rector

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

6:00 and 11:00 p.m.

Introit Puer natus est

Anglican Chant: H. Walford Davies

Unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called, Angel of mighty Counsel. O sing unto the Lord a new song: for he hath done marvelous things.

– Isaiah 9:6; Psalm 98

Processional Hymn

Adeste fideles, stand

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
come and behold him, born the King of Angels;

O come, let us adore him,

O come, let us adore him,

O come, let us adore him, Christ, the Lord.

God from God, Light from Light eternal, lo! he abhors not the Virgin's womb;
only begotten Son of the Father; Refrain

Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation, sing, all ye citizens of heav'n above;
glory to God, glory in the highest; Refrain

Yea, Lord, we greet thee, born this happy morning;
Jesus, to thee be glory giv'n;
Word of the Father, now in flesh appearing; Refrain

THE WORD OF GOD

Opening Sentences

Priest: Alleluia. To us a child is born.

People: Come, let us adore him. Alleluia.

The Collect for Purity

Priest: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

• 6:00 p.m. Gloria in Excelsis

Gloria in excelsis Deo
et in terra pax hominibus bonae voluntatis.
Laudamus te. Benedicimus te.
Adoramus te. Glorificamus te.
Gratias agimus tibi propter magnam gloriam tuam.
Domine Deus, rex caelestis, Deus Pater omnipotens, Domine Fili unigenite, Jesu Christe, Domine Deus, agnus Dei, Filius Patris, qui tollis peccata mundi,
miserere nobis;
qui tollis peccata mundi, suscipe
deprecationem nostram;
qui sedes ad dexteram Patris,
miserere nobis.
Quoniam tu solus sanctus.
Tu solus Dominus.
Tu solus altissimus, Jesu Christe.
Cum Sancto Spiritu,
in gloria Dei Patris. Amen.

Missa Brevis “Pastoral” in G, K. 140,
W. A. Mozart (1756–1791)

*Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to men of good will.
We praise you. We bless you.
We adore you. We glorify you.
We give you thanks
for your great glory.
Lord God, king of heaven,
God the Father almighty,
Lord, only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ,
Lord God, lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you who take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you who take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you who sit at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you only are holy.
You only are Lord.
You only are most high, Jesus Christ.
With the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.*

• 11:00 p.m. Hymn of Praise (Hymn 96)

Angels we have heard on high,
singing sweetly through the night,
and the mountains in reply echoing their brave delight.
Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Gloria

Come to Bethlehem and see Him whose birth the angels sing;
Come, adore on bended knee
Christ, the Lord, the newborn King.
Gloria in excelsis Deo.

The Collect of the Day

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Priest: Let us pray.

O God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light: Grant that we, who have known the mystery of that Light on earth, may also enjoy him perfectly in heaven; where with you and the Holy Spirit he lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting.

People: Amen.

The Lessons

Lector: A Reading from The Book of the prophet Isaiah. (9: 2-7) sit

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness—on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire. For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onwards and for evermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 96

1 Sing to the Lord a new song;
sing to the Lord, all the whole earth.

2 Sing to the Lord and bless his Name;
proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day.

- 3 Declare his glory among the nations and his wonders among all peoples.
- 4 For great is the Lord and greatly to be praised;
he is more to be feared than all gods.
- 5 As for all the gods of the nations, they are but idols;
but it is the Lord who made the heavens.
- 6 Oh, the majesty and magnificence of his presence!
Oh, the power and the splendor of his sanctuary!
- 7 Ascribe to the Lord, you families of the peoples;
ascribe to the Lord honor and power.
- 8 Ascribe to the Lord the honor due his Name;
bring offerings and come into his courts.
- 9 Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness;
let the whole earth tremble before him.
- 10 Tell it out among the nations: “The Lord is King!
he has made the world so firm that it cannot be moved;
he will judge the peoples with equity.”
- 11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
let the sea thunder and all that is in it;
let the field be joyful and all that is therein.
- 12 Then shall all the trees of the wood shout for joy before the Lord when he comes,
when he comes to judge the earth.
- 13 He will judge the world with righteousness and the peoples with his truth.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

• 6:00 p.m. Hymn 78: “O little town of Bethlehem”

Forest Green, stand

O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
the silent stars go by.
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
the everlasting light;
the hopes and fears of all the years
are met in thee tonight.

O morning stars, together proclaim the holy birth,
and praises sing to God the King,
and peace to men on earth;
for Christ is born of Mary;
and gathered all above, while mortals sleep, the angels keep their watch of wond’ring love.

How silently, how silently, the wondrous gift is giv’n!
So God imparts to human hearts
the blessings of his heav’n.
No ear my hear his coming;
but in this world of sin,
where meek souls will receive him, still the dear Christ enters in.

O holy Child of Bethlehem, descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin, and enter in,
be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels
the great glad tidings tell:
O come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Emmanuel.

• 11:00 p.m. Hymn 105: “God rest you merry, gentlemen”

God Rest You Merry, stand

God rest you merry, gentlemen,
let nothing you dismay;
Remember Christ our Savior
was born on Christmas Day,
To save us all from Satan’s power
when we were gone astray.
O tidings of comfort and joy!

From God our heavenly Father a blessed angel came and unto certain shepherds brought tidings of the same;
how that in Bethlehem was born
the Son of God by name.
O tidings of comfort and joy!

“Fear not, then,” said the angel,
“Let nothing you affright;
this day is born a Savior
of a pure virgin bright, to free all those who trust in him from Satan’s power and might.”
O tidings of comfort and joy!

Now to the Lord sing praises,
all you within this place,
and with true love and charity
each other now embrace;
this holy tide of Christmas doth bring redeeming grace.
O tidings of comfort and joy!

The Gospel according to Luke. (2: 1-20)

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!" When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon: The Reverend Luke Jernagan

sit

All: We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
The only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

kneel

Lector: My sisters and brothers in the peace of God, all the gifts we shall give and receive in these days are but small tokens of the gift that shines forth in God's word made flesh this night. With grateful hearts let us intercede for all who find themselves longing for this deepest, truest gift, saying: Lord, hear our prayer.

That the peace proclaimed by angels in the shepherds' field might be realized on every field of war and on every street of violence, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: That the child born to us might find in our hearts warm welcome by our openness to the needs of the homeless and the hungry, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: That in this time of gift-giving we might become more responsive to the abandoned, the despairing, and the mourning, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: That the rejoicing of this day might be a bond leading us to true communion of life and worship, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: That the joy and consolation of the Wonderful Counselor might enliven all who are struck down by disease and illness, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: That the blessing of God's love might be known by all those in whose honor the flowers and greens are given, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: That the blessed hope we celebrate this night might be the fulfillment of all who have gone before us in faith, especially those in whose memory the flowers and greens are given, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Priest: God of darkness and silence, you have pierced the quiet of this night by the utterance of your word in our flesh. May our words of praise and petition be strong echoes of your Christmas word, so that all might come to the peace you promise in Jesus, who is Lord and God this night and forever. Amen.

Exchanging of the Peace

stand

Priest: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

• 6:00 p.m. Carol

John Goss (1800–1880)

arr. David Willcocks (1919–2015)

See, amid the winter's snow,
Born for us on earth below,
See the tender Lamb appears,
Promised from eternal years:

*Hail, thou ever-blessed morn:
Hail, redemption's happy dawn;
Sing through all Jerusalem,
"Christ is born in Bethlehem."*

Lo, within a manger lies
He who built the starry skies;
He who, throned in height sublime,
Sits amid the cherubim!

Say, ye holy shepherds, say
What your joyful news today;
Wherefore have ye left your sheep
On the lonely mountain steep?

“As we watched at dead of night,
Lo, we saw a wondrous light;
Angels singing ‘Peace on earth’
Told us of the Savior's birth.”

Sacred infant, all divine,
What a tender love was thine,
Thus to come from highest bliss
Down to such a world as this!

Teach, O teach us, Holy Child,
By thy face so meek and mild,
Teach us to resemble thee,
In Thy sweet humility.

– Edward Caswall

• 11:00 p.m. Christmas Carol

H. Walford Davies (1869–1941)

Unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord.
And this shall be a sign to you: Ye shall find the Babe, wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger.

O little town of Bethlehem how still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by Yet in thy dark streets shineth the everlasting light
The hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.

How silently, how silently, the wondrous gift is giv'n!
So God imparts to human hearts the blessings of his heav'n.
No ear may hear his coming; but in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive him, still the dear Christ enters in.

O holy child of Bethlehem, descend to us we pray;
Cast out our sin and enter in, be born in us today,
We hear the Christmas angels, the great glad tidings tell;

At the Presentation, Hymn 100: “Joy to the world”

Antioch, stand

Joy to the world! The Lord is come; let earth receive her King: let every heart prepare Him room, and heaven and nature sing.	He rules the world with truth and grace, and makes the nations prove the glories of His righteousness, and wonders of His love.

The Great Thanksgiving

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect Man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children.

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All:       We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Priest:     And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all;
presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

Priest:     And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All:       Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
          on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
          but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
          and the power, and the glory,
          for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Priest: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Carols

Sussex Carol

English, arr. David Willcocks (1919–2015)

On Christmas night all Christians sing,
To hear the news the angels bring –
News of great joy, news of great mirth,
News of our merciful King’s birth.

When sin departs before his grace,
Then life and health come in its place;
Angels and men with joy may sing,
All for to see the new-born King.

Then why should men on earth be so sad,
Since our Redeemer made us glad,
When from our sin he set us free,
All for to gain our liberty?

All out of darkness we have light,
Which made the angels sing this night:
“Glory to God and peace to men,
Now and for evermore. Amen.”

Make we joy now in this fest

William Walton (1902–1983)

*Make we joy now in this fest,
In quo Christus natus est.
Eya, Eya, Eya!*

A Patre unigenitus,
Is through a maiden come to us:
Sing we of Him and say “Welcome
Veni Redemptor gencium!”

A solis ortus cardine,
So mighty a Lord is none as He;
And to our kind He hath him knit,
Adam parens quod polluit.

Agnoscat omne seculum,
A bright star made three kings to come,
Him for to seek with their presents,
Verbum supernum prodiens.

Maria ventre concepit,
The Holy Ghost was aye her with,
Of her in Bethlem born he is,
Consorts paterni luminis.

O lux beata Trinitas,
He lay between an ox and ass,
Beside His mother maiden free,
Gloria tibi Domine.

The Infant King

Traditional Basque, arr. David Willcocks (1919–2015)

Sing lullaby!
Lullaby baby, now reclining,
Sing lullaby!
Hush, do not wake the infant king.
Angels are watching, stars are shining
Over the place where he is lying:
Sing lullaby!

Sing lullaby!
Lullaby baby, now a-sleeping,
Sing lullaby!
Hush, do not wake the infant king.
Soon will come sorrow with the morning,
Soon will come bitter grief and weeping:
Sing lullaby!

Sing lullaby!
Lullaby baby, now a-doing,
Sing lullaby!
Hush, do not wake the infant king.
Soon comes the cross, the nails, the piercing,
Then in the grave at last reposing:
Sing lullaby!

Sing lullaby!
Lullaby! is the babe awaking?
Sing lullaby!
Hush, do not stir the infant king,
Dreaming of Easter, gladsome morning,
Conquering Death, its bondage breaking:
Sing lullaby!

– Sabine Baring-Gould (1834-1924)

A Prayer of Thanksgiving

kneel

Priest: Let us pray.

All: Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn 111 Sung by all, by candlelight

Stille Nacht

Silent night, holy night,
all is calm, all is bright round yon virgin, mother and child.
    Holy infant so tender and mild,
sleep in heavenly peace.
Sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night, holy night,
shepherds quake at the sight,
    glories stream from heaven afar,
    heavenly hosts sing alleluia;
Christ, the Savior, is born!
Christ, the Savior, is born!

Silent night, holy night,
Son of God, love's pure light radiant beams from thy holy face, with the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord, at thy birth.
Jesus, Lord, at thy birth.

The Blessing

Priest: May Almighty God, who sent his Son to take our nature upon him, bless you in this holy season, scatter the darkness of sin, and brighten your heart with the light of his holiness.

May God, who sent his angels to proclaim the glad news of the Savior's birth, fill you with joy, and make you heralds of the Gospel.

May God, who in the Word made flesh joined heaven to earth and earth to heaven, give you his peace and favor.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever.

People: Amen.

Hymn

Mendelssohn, stand

Hark! the herald angels sing
glory to the newborn King!
Peace on earth and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled!
Joyful, all ye nations rise,
join the triumph of the skies;
with angelic hosts proclaim
Christ is born in Bethlehem.

*Hark! the herald angels sing
glory to the newborn King.*

Christ, by highest heav'n adored;
Christ, the everlasting Lord;
late in time behold him come,
offspring of a virgin's womb.
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see;
hail the incarnate Deity.
Pleased as man with us to dwell;
Jesus, our Emmanuel!

*Hark! the herald angels sing
glory to the newborn King.*

Hail the heav'n born Prince of Peace!
Hail, the Sun of Righteousness!
Light and life to all he brings,
ris'n with healing in his wings;
mild he lays his glory by,
born that we no more may die,
born to raise us from the earth,
born to give us second birth.

*Hark! the herald angels sing
glory to the newborn King.*

The Dismissal
