

THE SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

April 8, 2018

THE HOLY EUCHARIST: RITE II – 10:30 A.M.

The Service begins on page 355 of The Book of Common Prayer.

Prelude: “The Peace may be exchanged...” from Rubrics

Dan Locklair (b.1949)

THE WORD OF GOD

Introit Quasi modo

Anglican Chant: Edward Elgar

As new-born babes, alleluia, desire ye the guileless milk of the word: alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Sing we merrily unto God, our helper: make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob.

– 1 Peter 2:2; Ps. 81

Hymn 212: “Awake, arise, lift up your voice”

Richmond, stand

Opening Sentences

Priest: Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People: The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

The Collect for Purity

Priest: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria in excelsis (Hymnal S 278)

William Mathias (1934–1992)

All: Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God’s people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Priest: Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery established the new covenant of reconciliation: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People: Amen.

The Lessons

Lector: A Reading from The First Letter of John. (1:1—2:2) sit

We declare to you what was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life—this life was revealed, and we have seen it and testify to it, and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us—we declare to you what we have seen and heard so that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. We are writing these things so that our joy may be complete. This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him there is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him while we are walking in darkness, we lie and do not do what is true; but if we walk in the light as he himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 133

- 1 Oh, how good and pleasant it is,
when brethren live together in unity!
- 2 It is like fine oil upon the head
that runs down upon the beard,
- 3 Upon the beard of Aaron,
and runs down upon the collar of his robe.
- 4 It is like the dew of Hermon
that falls upon the hills of Zion.
- 5 For there the Lord has ordained the blessing:
life for evermore.

All: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Hymn 209: "We walk by faith, and not by sight" St. Botolph, stand Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

(20: 19-31)

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe." A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Prayers of the People

Lector: Gathered together in the name and power of our risen Lord, through whom the glory of God is revealed, let us offer our prayers to almighty God, saying: Lord, hear our prayer.

kneel

For the peace of the world, that all humanity may live in freedom with justice and dignity, let us pray to the Lord:

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: For the unity of the church in Christ Jesus, that we may be one in Christ as Christ is one with God; and for Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury; Michael, our Presiding Bishop; Wayne, our Bishop; Luke, Kelly and Ian, our clergy; and the members of our parish staff, that they may follow Christ as they seek to serve his church, let us pray to the Lord:

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: For the apostolic mission of the church, that we may bring all humanity to the knowledge and love of God in Christ, let us pray to the Lord:

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: For the diaconal ministry of the church, that we may serve one another in Christ's name, remembering especially the ministries of Episcopal City Mission, Magdalene St. Louis, Beyond Housing, and The Haven of Grace, and the people in need whom they each seek to serve, let us pray to the Lord:

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: For all who need the love and power of Christ, especially Daisy Fennebresque, Jimmy Grimmett, Tom Hoeber, Bobby Leatherman, Sr., Carolyn Miles, Barbara Morriss, Lynne Palan, Lorry Sharp and Alice Vosburgh, let us pray to the Lord:

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: For all the saints in glory and all those whom we have known and loved who though dead are alive in Christ, especially Carol Glasgow and Betty Schmid, let us pray to the Lord:

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Priest: Grant, eternal God, that we who are made one with Jesus Christ in the power of his death and resurrection may show forth in our lives the love which proclaims us his disciples, that the world may believe in you and be saved, through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

All baptized persons are invited to receive Communion.

If you would like to receive gluten-free bread, let the priest know at the altar rail.

The Offertory Anthem

French Melody, 18th century

arr. Charles Villiers Stanford (1852–1924)

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

O sons and daughters, let us sing!
The King of Heav'n the glorious King,
O'er death today rose triumphing.
Alleluia!

My piercèd Side, O Thomas, see;
My Hands, My Feet I show to thee;
Not faithless, but believing be."
Alleluia!

That night th' Apostles met in fear!
Amidst them came their Lord most dear,
And said, "My peace be on all here."
Alleluia!

No longer Thomas then denied;
He saw the Feet, the Hands the Side;
"Thou art my Lord and God," he cried.
Alleluia!

When Thomas first the tidings heard,
How they had seen the risen Lord,
He doubted the disciples' word.
Alleluia.

How blest are they who have not seen,
And yet whose faith has constant been,
For they eternal life shall win. Alleluia.
Amen.

Anthem	Percy Whitlock (1903–1946)
He is risen! He is risen! Tell it out with joyful voice. He has burst his three days' prison; Let the whole wide earth rejoice. Death is conquered; man is free. Christ has won the victory.	Come, ye sad and fearful-hearted, with glad smile and radiant brow! Lent's long shadows have departed; all his woes are over now, and the passion that he bore: sin and pain can vex no more.
	Come with high and holy hymning; Chant our Lord's triumphant lay. Not one darksome cloud is dimming Yonder glorious morning ray, Breaking o'er the purple east, Symbol of our Easter feast.
