The Lessons

Lector: A Reading from The Book of the Acts of the Apostles. sit
(1: 15-17, 21-26)

In those days Peter stood up among the believers (together the crowd numbered about one hundred twenty persons) and said, “Friends, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit through David foretold concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus—for he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry. So one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us—one of these must become a witness with us to his resurrection.” So they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias. Then they prayed and said, “Lord, you know everyone’s heart. Show us which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place.” And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 1

- 1 Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked,
nor lingered in the way of sinners,
nor sat in the seats of the scornful!
- 2 Their delight is in the law of the Lord,
and they meditate on his law day and night.
- 3 They are like trees planted by streams of water,
bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither;
everything they do shall prosper.

- 4 It is not so with the wicked;
they are like chaff which the wind blows away.
- 5 Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when judgment comes,
 nor the sinner in the council of the righteous.
- 6 For the Lord knows the way of the righteous,
but the way of the wicked is doomed.

All: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Words: John Mason (1646–1694)

Music: Ken Naylor (1931–1991)

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
(17: 6-19)

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus prayed for his disciples saying, "I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one. While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves. I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth."

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

The Offertory Anthem

Maurice Greene (1696–1755)

O clap your hands together, all ye people; O sing unto God with the voice of melody. For the Lord is high and to be feared; He is the great King upon all the earth. He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet. O sing praises unto our God, O sing praises unto our King. For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding.

MUSIC NOTES: The music at this service reflects this point of the Easter season: the time immediately after the Feast of the Ascension. • The jubilant five-voice motet at Communion is by Peter Philips (1560–1628) who began his musical career as a boy chorister at St. Paul’s Cathedral, London. • The Organ Prelude and Offertory Anthem are by Maurice Greene (1696–1755), the Organist of St. Paul’s, London from 1718 until his death. G. F. Handel was very fond of the organ at St. Paul’s and frequently visited Greene at the cathedral. Whatever friendship they developed didn’t last, however, and later Handel was unable to speak of Greene “without some injurious epithet.” • Ascent by American composer Joan Tower (b. 1938) is one of the most compelling pieces of organ music written in recent decades. It was premiered on the Mander Organ at St. Ignatius Loyola, in New York City at the 1996 convention of the American Guild of Organists. The perpetually rising lines in this piece are a feat of musical engineering, and the work’s conclusion is as unexpected as it is inevitable.

The altar flowers are given to the glory of God in loving memory of Anita Beal and Tom Hoeber, by Connie Lohr and Carmen Hoeber.
