

Easter Day

April 21, 2019

Celebration of The Holy Eucharist

Dear Friends in Christ,

Welcome to St. Peter's Episcopal Church as we celebrate the glorious resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ and the assurance of eternal life given to us all. Wherever you find yourself on your spiritual journey, know that you are welcome here. We believe God is actively present in our world, and we seek to know and serve God through joyful worship, education, service, and fellowship. If you are searching for a church community and would like more information about St. Peter's, please fill out the Visitor's Register in the entry hall, and we will be in touch with you. May the blessing of God's peace be with you during this Easter season.

The Easter Offering has been designated to support the mission of our five ministry partners: Beyond Housing, Bravely, Episcopal City Mission, The Haven of Grace and Outreach Haiti. Please use the offering envelopes in the pews if you wish to support these ministries.

The Reverend Luke Jernagan,
Rector

THE HOLY EUCHARIST: RITE II

9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m.

The Service begins on page 355 of The Book of Common Prayer.

Organ Prelude: Saraband for the Morning of Easter                      Herbert Howells (1892–1983)

THE WORD OF GOD

Introit    George Thalben-Ball (1896-1987)

The Lord is risen. He is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Hymn 207: “Jesus Christ is risen today”    Easter Hymn, stand

Opening Sentences

Priest:                      Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People:                      The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

The Collect for Purity

Priest:                      Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria in Excelsis (sung by the Choir)    Herbert Howells (1892–1983)

Glory be to God on high, and in earth peace, good will towards men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Priest: Let us pray.

Almighty God, who through your only begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People: Amen.

The Lessons

Lector: A Reading from The Book of the prophet Isaiah. (65: 17-25) sit

For I am about to create new heavens and a new earth; the former things shall not be remembered or come to mind. But be glad and rejoice forever in what I am creating; for I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy, and its people as a delight. I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and delight in my people; no more shall the sound of weeping be heard in it, or the cry of distress. No more shall there be in it an infant that lives but a few days, or an old person who does not live out a lifetime; for one who dies at a hundred years will be considered a youth, and one who falls short of a hundred will be considered accursed. They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit. They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat; for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labor in vain, or bear children for calamity; for they shall be offspring blessed by the Lord—and their descendants as well. Before they call I will answer, while they are yet speaking I will hear. The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, the lion shall eat straw like the ox; but the serpent—its food shall be dust! They shall not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain, says the Lord.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 118: 1-2, 14-24

- 1 Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
his mercy endures for ever.
- 2 Let Israel now proclaim,
“His mercy endures for ever.”
- 14 The Lord is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation.
- 15 There is a sound of exultation and victory in the tents of the righteous:
- 16 “The right hand of the Lord has triumphed!
the right hand of the Lord is exalted!
the right hand of the Lord has triumphed!”
- 17 I shall not die, but live,
and declare the works of the Lord.
- 18 The Lord has punished me sorely,
but he did not hand me over to death.
- 19 Open for me the gates of righteousness;
I will enter them;
I will offer thanks to the Lord.
- 20 “This is the gate of the Lord;
he who is righteous may enter.”
- 21 I will give thanks to you, for you answered me and have become my salvation.
- 22 The same stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.

23        This is the Lord’s doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes.

24        On this day the Lord has acted;
we will rejoice and be glad in it.

All:        Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Hymn 208: “Alleluia! The strife is o’er, the battle done”

Victory, stand

Priest:      The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
(24 1-12)

People:      Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, “Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.” Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

Priest:      The Gospel of the Lord.

People:      Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon: The Reverend Luke Jernagan

sit

All: We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Lector: Alleluia! What was dead shall live; what was dark shall shine; what was forgotten shall be remembered, for the Lord is risen and walks among us. Let us confidently bring before God the needs of all our world, asking God for renewal, saying: Christ is risen, Christ is risen indeed.

kneel

God of life, in gratitude and great joy we laud you for the gifts of Christ's resurrection. On this day give us hope, for Christ is risen:

People: Christ is risen indeed.

Lector: On this feast day which brings joy to all Christian believers, may we commit ourselves to work toward the unity of the church, that Christ's body may be one, for Christ is risen:

People: Christ is risen indeed.

Lector: Honoring the gift of Christ's risen body, may we rise to serve all those whose needs keep them from seeing themselves as the image of God; for Christ is risen:

People: Christ is risen indeed.

Lector: Remembering all who have need of the gift of Easter, may they journey from illness to health, from despair to hope, from grief to consolation, from loneliness to love; remembering all our brothers and sisters, may death have no more power over us, for Christ is risen:

People: Christ is risen indeed.

Lector: Remembering all who suffer and all who mourn, that today the Lord God will wipe away all tears, for Christ is risen:

People: Christ is risen indeed.

Lector: May we long to be God's sign of life in our world, for Christ is risen:

People: Christ is risen indeed.

Lector: May we be one in faith with all who have died in Christ, for our life is hidden with Christ in God; for Christ is risen:

People: Christ is risen indeed.

Priest: God of life, we thank you for the mystery planted in us, the paradox of life from death and community from scattered disciples. We praise you for the dying which saves us from death and for the rising which brings us life. We pray, as we live, through Jesus the risen one, in the power of the Holy Spirit, now and forever.

All: Amen.

The Offertory Anthem

Lennox Berkeley (1903–1989)

Christ, whose joys we joyfully celebrate,
Grant us all a place with thy chosen ones,
True delights, ineffable happiness,
Rest eternal.

O that I once past changing were,
Fast in thy Paradise, where no flower can wither!

Many a spring I shoot up fair, Offering at heav'n, growing and groaning thither:

Nor doth my flower
Want a spring-shower,
My sins and I joining together:

Death and darkness get you packing,
Nothing now to man is lacking,
All your triumphs now are ended,
And what Adam marr'd is mended:
Graves are beds now for the weary,
Death a nap, to wake more merry;
Youth now, full of pious duty,
Seeks in thee for perfect beauty,
The weak and aged, tir'd with length
Of days, from thee look for new strength,
And infants with thy pangs contest
As pleasant, as if with the breast;
Then unto him, who thus hath thrown Ev'n to contempt thy kingdom down,
And by his blood did us advance
Unto his own inheritance,
To him be glory, power, praise,
From this, unto the last of days.

William Byrd (c. 1540–1623)

Haec dies quam fecit Dominus, Exultemus et laetemur in ea. Alleluia.

This is the day which the Lord hath made: We will rejoice and be glad in it. Alleluia.

– Psalm 118:24

Anthem

Matthew Owens (b. 1971)

This joyful Eastertide, away with sin and sorrow!
My Love, the Crucified, hath sprung to life this morrow.

My flesh in hope shall rest and for a season slumber:
till trump from east to west shall wake the dead in number.

*Had Christ, that once was slain, ne'er burst His three-day prison,
our faith had been in vain;
but now hath Christ arisen.*

Death's flood hath lost its chill
since Jesus crossed the river; Lover of souls, from ill
my passing soul deliver.
