O God, the King of glory, you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven: Do not leave us comfortless, but send us your Holy Spirit to strengthen us, and exalt us to that place where our Savior Christ has gone before; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, in glory everlasting.

The Lessons

Lector: A Reading from The Book of the Revelation to John.
(22: 12-14, 16-17, 20-21)

sit

The angel said to me, "See, I am coming soon; my reward is with me, to repay according to everyone's work. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end." Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they will have the right to the tree of life and may enter the city by the gates. "It is I, Jesus, who sent my angel to you with this testimony for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star." The Spirit and the bride say, "Come." And let everyone who hears say, "Come." And let everyone who is thirsty come. Let anyone who wishes take the water of life as a gift. The one who testifies to these things says, "Surely I am coming soon." Amen. Come, Lord Jesus! The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all the saints. Amen.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 97

Anglican Chant: E. F. Day

- 1 The Lord is King; let the earth rejoice;
let the multitude of the isles be glad.
- 2 Clouds and darkness are round about him,
righteousness and justice are the foundations of his throne.
- 3 A fire goes before him
and burns up his enemies on every side.
- 4 His lightnings light up the world;
the earth sees it and is afraid.
- 5 The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the Lord,
at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
- 6 The heavens declare his righteousness,
and all the peoples see his glory.
- 7 Confounded be all who worship carved images
and delight in false gods!
Bow down before him, all you gods.
- 8 Zion hears and is glad, and the cities of Judah rejoice,
because of your judgments, O Lord.
- 9 For you are the Lord,
most high over all the earth;
you are exalted far above all gods.

10 The Lord loves those who hate evil;
 he preserves the lives of his saints
 and delivers them from the hand of the wicked.
 11 Light has sprung up for the righteous,
 and joyful gladness for those who are truehearted.
 12 Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous,
 and give thanks to his holy Name.

Alleluia Regnavit Dominus

– Psalm 47:8; John 14:18

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
 (17: 20-26)

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus prayed for his disciples, and then he said, “I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. The glory that you have given me I have given them, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me. Father, I desire that those also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my glory, which you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world. Righteous Father, the world does not know you, but I know you; and these know that you have sent me. I made your name known to them, and I will make it known, so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them.”

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Voluntary: St. Louis Blues (1914)

William Christopher Handy (1873–1958)

MUSIC NOTES: The music at this service reflects this point of the Easter season: the time immediately after the Feast of the Ascension. • The jubilant five-voice motet at Communion is by Peter Philips (1560–1628) who began his musical career as a boy chorister at St. Paul’s Cathedral, London. • The Offertory Anthem is by Maurice Greene (1696–1755), the Organist of St. Paul’s, London from 1718 until his death. G. F. Handel was very fond of the organ at St. Paul’s and frequently visited Greene at the cathedral. Whatever friendship they developed didn’t last, however, and later Handel was unable to speak of Greene “without some injurious epithet.” • The organ at St. Peter’s often “plays Gloria” when it accompanies the Gloria in excelsis at most services of Holy Eucharist. Since the Gloria is omitted in this Baptismal liturgy, it is played by the organ as the Prelude. The Voluntary is also played in tribute to current professional sporting events.
