THE WORD OF GOD

Introit Reminiscere

Anglican Chant: L. Dakers

Call to remembrance thy tender compassion and mercy, O Lord, and thy loving-kindnesses towards us, which have been ever of old: neither suffer our enemies to triumph against us; deliver us, O God of Israel, out of all our misery and trouble. Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul: my God, in thee have I trusted, let me not be confounded.

– Psalm 25: 6,3,22,1–2

Hymn 401: “The God of Abraham praise”

Leoni, stand

Priest: Let us pray.

O God, whose glory it is always to have mercy: Be gracious to all who have gone astray from your ways, and bring them again with penitent hearts and steadfast faith to embrace and hold fast the unchangeable truth of your Word, Jesus Christ your Son; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever.

People: Amen.

Lector: A Reading from The Book of Genesis. (15: 1-12, 17-18)

The word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision, “Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great.” But Abram said, “O Lord God, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?” And Abram said, “You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir.” But the word of the Lord came to him, “This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir.” He brought him outside and said, “Look toward heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them.” Then he said to him, “So shall your descendants be.” And he believed the Lord; and the Lord reckoned it to him as righteousness. Then he said to him, “I am the Lord who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to possess.” But he said, “O Lord God, how am I to know that I shall possess it?” He said to him, “Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtledove, and a young pigeon.” He brought him all these and cut them in two, laying each half over against the other; but he did not cut the birds in two. And when birds of prey came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away. As the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram, and a deep and terrifying darkness descended upon him. When the sun had gone down and it was dark, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch passed between these pieces. On that day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, “To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates.”

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 27

- 1 The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom then shall I fear?
the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid?
- 2 When evildoers came upon me to eat up my flesh,
it was they, my foes and my adversaries, who stumbled and fell.
- 3 Though an army should encamp against me,
yet my heart shall not be afraid;
- 4 And though war should rise up against me,
yet will I put my trust in him.

5 One thing have I asked of the Lord; one thing I seek;
that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life;
6 To behold the fair beauty of the Lord
and to seek him in his temple.
7 For in the day of trouble he shall keep me safe in his shelter;
he shall hide me in the secrecy of his dwelling and set me high upon a rock.
8 Even now he lifts up my head
above my enemies round about me.
9 Therefore I will offer in his dwelling an oblation
with sounds of great gladness;
I will sing and make music to the Lord.
10 Hearken to my voice, O Lord, when I call;
have mercy on me and answer me.
11 You speak in my heart and say, “Seek my face.”
Your face, Lord, will I seek.
12 Hide not your face from me,
nor turn away your servant in displeasure.
13 You have been my helper; cast me not away;
do not forsake me, O God of my salvation.
14 Though my father and my mother forsake me,
the Lord will sustain me.
15 Show me your way, O Lord;
lead me on a level path, because of my enemies.
16 Deliver me not into the hand of my adversaries,
for false witnesses have risen up against me,
and also those who speak malice.
17 What if I had not believed that I should see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living!
18 O tarry and await the Lord’s pleasure;
be strong, and he shall comfort your heart;
wait patiently for the Lord.

All: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Hymn 590: “O Jesus Christ, may grateful hymns be rising”

Charterhouse, stand

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
(13: 31-35)

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to Jesus, “Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you.” He said to them, “Go and tell that fox for me, ‘Listen, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I finish my work. Yet today, tomorrow, and the next day I must be on my way, because it is impossible for a prophet to be killed outside of Jerusalem.’ Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! See, your house is left to you. And I tell you, you will not see me until the time comes when you say, ‘Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.’ ”

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Prayers of the People

Lector: Our compassionate and yet all-powerful God has called us to repentance. May our prayers and our fasting assist us in coming before God with pure hearts and minds. Today is the acceptable time; let us pray, saying: Lord, have mercy.

kneel

For all Christians, that embracing their Lenten discipline with joy, the cross of Christ may be their banner and the pledge of resurrection their hope, we pray:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: For those preparing for baptism, that their observance of the Lenten season strengthens their resolve to receive God’s gift of new life, we pray:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: For our confirmands, that they find Lent a time of renewal and Easter a season of joy, we pray:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: For all churches, that Lent be a time of repentance for sins against the unity of the body of Christ; for Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury, Michael, our Presiding Bishop, and Wayne, our Bishop; for Luke, Kelly and Joseph, our clergy; and for the members of our parish staff, that they may follow Christ as they seek to serve in his name, we pray:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: For our parish concerns, especially the ministries of Beyond Housing, Bravely, Episcopal City Mission, The Haven of Grace and Outreach Haiti, and the people in need whom they each seek to serve, that we remember the needs of others as we purify our own hearts and minds, we pray:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: For this assembly, that as we celebrate our union with Christ in this holy meal we may not grow weary of proclaiming his saving death and resurrection to the whole world, we pray:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: For those who suffer from illness of body, mind or spirit, especially Robert Barringer, Norma Blankenship, Chris Canepa, Ginger Cornelius, Ed Dewein, Mary Jones, Bryan Miller, Jere Pastore, Kathy Sheehan and Buzz Wall, that they may receive the consolation of knowing the love of their crucified Savior and its healing power, we pray:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: For those who have died, especially Eve Ballman, that they may have rest in that place where there is no pain or grief, but life eternal, we pray:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Priest: O God, as you called the Israelites to repent of their sins, so now you call us to fasting and prayer, in repentance for wandering from you. Never let us lose our way, and guide us during our Lenten journey that we arrive at Easter morning, ready once more to celebrate our passage with Christ from death to life, from despair to hope, trusting in the life of Christ, our Lord.

All: Amen.

The Confession

Priest: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Absolution

Priest: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Offertory Anthem

Maurice Greene (1696–1755)

Lord, let me know mine end, and the number of my days; that I may be certified how long I have to live. Behold, thou hast made my days, as it were a span long; and mine age is ev'n as nothing in respect of thee; and verily ev'ry man living is altogether vanity. For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain; he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them. And now, Lord, what is my hope? Truly my hope is ev'n in thee. Hear my prayer, O Lord, and with thine ears, consider my calling. Hold not thy peace at my tears. O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength: before I go hence, and be no more seen.

– Psalm 39: 5–8,13,15

TODAY...

FAMILIES – Children are always welcome in church! If parents prefer, childcare is available in the Little Building, 9-11:45. These suggestions might enhance your child’s experience in worship: consider sitting towards the front where it’s easier for your little ones to engage; quietly explain the parts of the service and the actions of the clergy and musicians; sing the hymns, pray, and voice the responses. Children learn behavior by following you. If your child (or you!) needs a break, the service is live-streamed in the Undercroft, where there is also a children’s area with books and coloring sheets. Get the wiggles out, but please come back! As Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me”.

CHILDREN’S CHAPEL – All ages, please join us in Grace Chapel, 10:15 to 10:25 a.m. each Sunday before Sunday School.

PARISH BREAKFAST – Come enjoy a hot breakfast in the Undercroft today, served from 8:45 until 10:00. The cost is $5 per person or $20 per family.

RECTOR’S FORUM meets each Sunday morning, 9:15-10:00 a.m. in the Undercroft. We will continue the conversation today and next Sunday on “Take Up your Cross: The relationship of Joy and Pain.” Is it possible to experience joy in the midst of suffering? Where is God in the midst of pain and sadness? How do we reconcile faith and tragedy? This study leading us toward Easter will address some of life’s most essential questions.

AN INTENTIONAL LENT – This year’s Lenten formation resource – It’s time to . . .

Stop, Pray, Work, Play & Love – is a multi-format offering from the Society of Saint John the Evangelist, an Episcopal monastic community based in Massachusetts. Pick up the It’s time to . . . booklet in the Undercroft this morning, sign up at www.ssje.org/time to receive the SSJE Brothers’ daily Lenten email and video, and see where this Lenten journey of intention takes you.
