THE WORD OF GOD

Introit Reminiscere

Anglican Chant: L. Dakers

Call to remembrance thy tender compassion and mercy, O Lord, and thy loving-kindnesses towards us, which have been ever of old: neither suffer our enemies to triumph against us; deliver us, O God of Israel, out of all our misery and trouble. Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul: my God, in thee have I trusted, let me not be confounded.

– Psalm 25: 6,3,22,1-2

O God, whose glory it is always to have mercy: Be gracious to all who have gone astray from your ways, and bring them again with penitent hearts and steadfast faith to embrace and hold fast the unchangeable truth of your Word, Jesus Christ your Son; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever.

Now the Lord said to Abram, “Go from your country and your kindred and your father’s house to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.” So Abram went, as the Lord had told him; and Lot went with him.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 121

- 1 I lift up my eyes to the hills;
from where is my help to come?
- 2 My help comes from the Lord,
the maker of heaven and earth.
- 3 He will not let your foot be moved
and he who watches over you will not fall asleep.
- 4 Behold, he who keeps watch over Israel
shall neither slumber nor sleep;
- 5 The Lord himself watches over you;
the Lord is your shade at your right hand,
- 6 So that the sun shall not strike you by day,
nor the moon by night.
- 7 The Lord shall preserve you from all evil;
it is he who shall keep you safe.
- 8 The Lord shall watch over your going out and your coming in,
from this time forth for evermore.

All: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Hymn 140: “Wilt thou forgive that sin, where I begun”

Donne, stand

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
(3: 1-17)

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God." Jesus answered him, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above." Nicodemus said to him, "How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother's womb and be born?" Jesus answered, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you, 'You must be born from above.' The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit." Nicodemus said to him, "How can these things be?" Jesus answered him, "Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things? Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him."

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Prayers of the People

Lector: Our compassionate and yet all-powerful God has called us to repentance. May our journey through Lent aid us in coming before God with pure hearts and minds. Today is the acceptable time; let us pray, saying: Lord, have mercy.

kneel

For all Christians, that embracing our Lenten discipline with joy, the cross of Christ may be our banner and the pledge of resurrection our hope, we pray:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: For those preparing for baptism, that their observance of the Lenten season strengthens their resolve to receive God's gift of new life, we pray:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: For our confirmands, that they find Lent a time of renewal and Easter a season of joy, we pray:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: For all churches, that Lent be a time of repentance for sins against the unity of the body of Christ; for Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury; Michael, our Presiding Bishop; Wayne, our Bishop; and Deon, our Bishop-elect; for Rob, Kelly and Joseph, our clergy; and for the members of our parish staff, that they follow Christ as they seek to serve in his name, we pray:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: For the members of our Search Committee, that enlightened by your grace and led by your counsel, they seek your glory and serve your will for this parish in calling our next rector.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: For our parish concerns, especially the people served by our ministry partners in St. Louis and Haiti, the people afflicted by the coronavirus, and the people working to eliminate its threat, that we remember the needs of others as we purify our own hearts and minds, we pray:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: For this assembly, that as we celebrate our union with Christ in this holy meal we not grow weary of proclaiming his saving death and resurrection to the whole world, we pray:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: For those who suffer from illness of body, mind or spirit, especially Brooke Erwin, Bryan Miller, Steve Minton, Carl Schuldt, Meg Walters, Scott Weaver and Joey Wilson, that they receive the consolation of knowing the love of their crucified Savior and its healing power, we pray:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: For those who have died, especially Peter Benoist and Maggie Jones, that they rest in God where there is no pain or grief, but life eternal, we pray:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Priest: O God, as you called the Israelites to repent of their sins, so now you call us to fasting and prayer, in repentance for wandering from you. Never let us lose our way, and guide us during our Lenten journey that we arrive at Easter morning, ready once more to celebrate our passage with Christ from death to life, from despair to hope, trusting in the life of Christ, our Lord.

All: Amen.

The Confession

Priest: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Absolution

Priest: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All: Amen.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Offertory Anthem

Judith Bingham (b. 1952)

I lift up mine eyes unto the hills
from whence cometh my help.
My help cometh even from the Lord
who hath made heaven and earth.
He will not suffer thy foot to be moved
and he that keepeth thee
will not sleep.
Behold, he that keepeth Israel
shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord himself is thy keeper
the Lord is thy defense upon thy right hand;
So that the sun shall not burn thee by day
neither the moon by night.
The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil
yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul.
The Lord shall preserve thy going out,
and thy coming in
from this time forth for evermore.

– Psalm 121

The choral music is by American composers Searle Wright (1918–2004) and Craig Phillips (b. 1961). The canticles are Wright’s Magnificat and Nunc dimittis in E minor.
