THE WORD OF GOD

Introit Domine, in tua misericordia

O Lord my God, in thy loving-kindness and mercy have I trusted, and my heart is joyful in thy salvation : I will sing unto the Lord, for he hath dealt lovingly with me. How long wilt thou forget me, O Lord, for ever : how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

- Psalm 13:6, 1

Priest: Let us pray.

O God, your never failing providence sets in order all things both in heaven and earth: Put away from us, we entreat you, all hurtful things, and give us those things which are profitable for us; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People: Amen. Anglican Chant: R. F. Brown

The Lessons

Lector:

A Reading from The Second Letter of Paul to the Corinthians. (4: 5-12)

sit

We do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake. For it is the God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us. We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be made visible in our bodies. For while we live, we are always being given up to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may be made visible in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 139: 1-5, 12-17

| 1 | Lord, you have searched me out and known me; you know my sitting down and my rising up; you discern my thoughts from afar. |
|----|--|
| 2 | You trace my journeys and my resting-places and are acquainted with all my ways. |
| 3 | Indeed, there is not a word on my lips, but you, O Lord, know it altogether. |
| 4 | You press upon me behind and before and lay your hand upon me. |
| 5 | Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is so high that I cannot attain to it. |
| 12 | For you yourself created my inmost parts; you knit me together in my mother's womb. |
| 13 | I will thank you because I am marvelously made; your works are wonderful, and I know it well. |

| 14 | My body was not hidden from you, while I was being made in secret and woven in the depths of the earth. |
|----|--|
| 15 | Your eyes beheld my limbs, yet unfinished in the womb; all of them were written in your book; they were fashioned day by day, when as yet there was none of them. |
| 16 | How deep I find your thoughts, O God! how great is the sum of them! |
| 17 | If I were to count them, they would be more in number than the sand; to count them all, my life span would need to be like yours. |

All: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark. stand (2:23—3:6)

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

One sabbath Jesus and his disciples were going through the grainfields; and as they made their way his disciples began to pluck heads of grain. The Pharisees said to him, "Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?" And he said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need of food? He entered the house of God, when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and he gave some to his companions." Then he said to them, "The sabbath was made for humankind, and not humankind for the sabbath; so the Son of Man is lord even of the sabbath." Again he entered the synagogue, and a man was there who had a withered hand. They watched him to see whether he would cure him on the sabbath, so that they might accuse him. And he said to the man who had the withered hand, "Come forward." Then he said to them, "Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to kill?" But they were silent. He looked around at them with anger; he was grieved at their hardness of heart and said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was restored. The Pharisees went out and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how to destroy him.

The Offertory Anthem

Ned Rorem (b. 1923)

| Love divine, all loves excelling, | Come, Almighty to deliver, |
|---------------------------------------|---|
| Joy of heaven, to earth come down, | Let us all Thy life receive; |
| Fix in us Thy humble dwelling, | Suddenly return, and never, |
| All Thy faithful mercies crown! | Nevermore Thy temples leave. |
| Jesus, Thou art all compassion, | Thee we would be always blessing, |
| Pure, unbounded love Thou art; | Serve Thee as Thy hosts above; |
| Visit us with Thy salvation, | Pray, and praise Thee without ceasing, |
| Enter every trembling heart. | Glory in Thy perfect love. |
| Breathe, O breathe Thy loving Spirit | Finish, then, Thy new creation; |
| Into every troubled breast! | Pure and spotless let us be; |
| Let us all in Thee inherit, | Let us see Thy great salvation |
| Let us find the promised rest. | Perfectly restored in Thee; |
| Take away the love of sinning; | Changed from glory, into glory, |
| Alpha and Omega be; | Till in heaven we take our place, |
| End of faith, as its Beginning, | Till we cast our crowns before Thee, |
| Set our hearts at liberty. | Lost in wonder, love, and praise. Amen. |
