THE WORD OF GOD

Introit Si iniquitates

Anglican Chant: H. Ley

If thou, O Lord, wilt be extreme to mark iniquities: Lord, who may abide it? For unto thee belongeth mercy, O God of Israel. Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

—Psalm 130:3,4,& 1,2

Hymn 48: “O day of radiant gladness”

Es flog ein kleins Waldvögelein, stand

Opening Sentences

Priest: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for Purity

Priest: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria in excelsis (Hymnal S 278)

All: Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God’s people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Priest: Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People: Amen.

The Lessons

Lector: A Reading from The Book of the prophet Jeremiah. (31: 7-9) sit

For thus says the Lord: Sing aloud with gladness for Jacob, and raise shouts for the chief of the nations; proclaim, give praise, and say, "Save, O Lord, your people, the remnant of Israel." See, I am going to bring them from the land of the north, and gather them from the farthest parts of the earth, among them the blind and the lame, those with child and those in labor, together; a great company, they shall return here. With weeping they shall come, and with consolations I will lead them back, I will let them walk by brooks of water, in a straight path in which they shall not stumble; for I have become a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 126

1 When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion,
then were we like those who dream.

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter,
and our tongue with shouts of joy.

3 Then they said among the nations,
The Lord has done great things for them.

4 The Lord has done great things for us,
and we are glad indeed.

Prayers of the People

Lector: Let us pray for the church and the world, saying: Lord, have mercy.

kneel

Holy God, we pray for all your people, baptized in the name of Christ. Heal our divisions, and give us one mind in Christ. For this we pray to you, O Lord:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: Stir up your church, including the Anglican Communion and Episcopal Church, Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury; Michael, our Presiding Bishop; Wayne, our Bishop; Luke and Kelly, our clergy; our parish staff; and this congregation. By your Spirit, help us make the power of the cross known to all, that people everywhere may see your great light. For this we pray to you, O Lord:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: Lift from all people the burdens of poverty, war and injustice. Break every rod of oppression throughout the earth. For this we pray to you, O Lord:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: Guide those who make and execute our laws, and those who maintain our safety, that all people may know their worth as your creation. For this we pray to you, O Lord:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: Strengthen us to care for the poor, the imprisoned, the victims of natural disasters, and all who suffer. Open our hands and hearts to embrace all who are in need, especially the people served by our ministry partners: Beyond Housing, Episcopal City Mission, The Haven of Grace, and Bravely. For this we pray to you, O Lord:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: Let all who suffer from sickness of body, mind, or spirit be touched by your healing grace and love, remembering especially Patricia Beseda, Patricia Drew, Martha Ferguson, Richard Hamman, Paul Johnson, Marcy Kovis, Rick Ledbetter, Bryan Miller and Gerald Spencer. For this we pray to you, O Lord:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: We remember before you all whom we love but see no more, especially DJ Moore and Marsha Hussung, and Anna Ragan. Give them eternal rest. For this we pray to you, O Lord:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Priest: Accept, O God, our thanks and praise for all the blessings of this life, and above all for the great mercies and promises given to us in Christ our Lord. By your Holy Spirit, show us how to serve you today, that all may know you by our love, through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

Priest: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Absolution

Priest: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

Voluntary: Praeludium in F-sharp minor, BuxWV 146 Dieterich Buxtehude
(1637–1707)

The sung setting of the Eucharist is the Communion Service, Op. 71 by William Mathias (1934–1992).

MUSIC NOTES: The prelude to this service is the second of Three Pieces for Organ, written in 1998 by American composer Aaron Travers (b. 1975). The composer writes: “It is a very slow lament using a simple chorale tune whose bass pattern is based on the [first] name of the dedicatee [Damin] (D-A-F-Bflat-G).” • The Offertory Anthem is by American composer Jake Runestad (b. 1986) who found in the words of Psalm 121 “great beauty in the admiration for natural creation linked with a promise of guidance and support from a higher power. ... I carefully shaped the melodic lines to mimic that of a mountainous landscape and the tone colors to the bold hues of where the hills meet the sky.” • One composer that we cannot hear from in his own words is William Byrd (c. 1540–1623), though one would love to hear an explanation from the composer about the abundance of cross-relations in his motet O salutaris hostia, a work presumably from the first part of his career.

ALL SAINTS AND ALL SOULS

All Saints' Day is celebrated by the Church every year on November 1st and is followed on November 2nd by All Souls' Day. The feast of All Saints' is an ancient tradition that celebrates all the saints, known and unknown, throughout the generations. All Souls' Day is the commemoration of all the faithful departed. Many churches combine the two celebrations into one for all those in our lives who have been examples of "virtuous and godly living." We all have known saints in our lives, those unique people who have pointed the way to God through love, kindness, courage, mercy, and compassion.

During the services of Holy Eucharist on Sunday, November 4th, we will give thanks for all the saints, those known to the Church and those known only to us, as we remember them in the Prayers of the People.

Please list the names of those saints whom you wish to remember. You may go to our website (www.stpetersepiscopal.org) to submit names or place this sheet in the offering plate today. In order to list all names in the bulletin they must be submitted by Monday, October 29th.
