November 11, 2018

THE HOLY EUCHARIST: RITE II – 10:30 A.M.

The Service begins on page 355 of The Book of Common Prayer.

Prelude: Elegie (1918)

C. Hubert H. Parry (1848–1918)

THE WORD OF GOD

Introit Dicit Dominus

Anglican Chant: Edward Elgar

Thus saith the Lord, I know the thoughts that I think toward you, thoughts of peace, and not of affliction; ye shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto you, and will bring again your captivity from every nation. Lord thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob.

– Jer. 29:11,12,14; Ps. 85

Hymn 362: “Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!”

Nicaea, stand

Opening Sentences

Priest: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for Purity

Priest: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria in excelsis (Hymnal S 278)

All: Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God’s people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Priest: Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son came into the world that he might destroy the works of the devil and make us children of God and heirs of eternal life: Grant that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves as he is pure; that, when he comes again with power and great glory, we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People: Amen.

The Lessons

Lector: A Reading from The Book of Ruth. (3:1–5; 4:13–17) sit

Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, “My daughter, I need to seek some security for you, so that it may be well with you. Now here is our kinsman Boaz, with whose young women you have been working. See, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor. Now wash and anoint yourself, and put on your best clothes and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. When he lies down, observe the place where he lies; then, go and uncover his feet and lie down; and he will tell you what to do.” She said to her, “All that you tell me I will do.” So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife. When they came together, the Lord made her conceive, and she bore a son. Then the women said to Naomi, “Blessed be the Lord, who has not left you this day without next-of-kin; and may his name be renowned in Israel! He shall be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age; for your daughter-in-law who loves you, who is more to you than seven sons, has borne him.” Then Naomi took the child and laid him in her bosom, and became his nurse. The women of the neighborhood gave him a name, saying, “A son has been born to Naomi.” They named him Obed; he became the father of Jesse, the father of David.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 127

- 1 Unless the Lord builds the house,
their labor is in vain who build it.
- 2 Unless the Lord watches over the city,
in vain the watchman keeps his vigil.
- 3 It is in vain that you rise so early and go to bed so late;
vain, too, to eat the bread of toil,
for he gives to his beloved sleep.
- 4 Children are a heritage from the Lord,
and the fruit of the womb is a gift.
- 5 Like arrows in the hand of a warrior
are the children of one's youth.
- 6 Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them!
he shall not be put to shame
when he contends with his enemies in the gate.

All: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Hymn 705: "As those of old their first fruits brought"

Forest Green, stand

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
(12: 38-44)

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

As Jesus taught, he said, "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets! They devour widows' houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation." He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on."

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

All: Amen.

Priest: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Offertory Anthem: O Deus Ego Amo Te

Ned Rorem (b. 1923)

O God, I love thee, I love thee-
Not out of hope of heaven for me
Nor fearing not to love and be
 In the everlasting burning.
Thou, thou, my Jesus, after me
 Didst reach thine arms out dying,
For my sake sufferedst nails, and lance,
Mocked and marred countenance,
 Sorrows passing number,
 Sweat and care and cumber,
Yea and death, and this for me,
 And thou couldst see me sinning:

Then I, why should not I love thee,
Jesus, so much in love with me?
Not for heaven's sake; not to be
Out of hell by loving thee;
Not for any gains I see;
But just the way that thou didst me
I do love and I will love thee:
What must I love thee, Lord, for then?
For being my king and God. Amen.

– St. Francis Xavier, tr. Gerard Manley Hopkins

Motet: Oratio Patris Condren: O Jesu Vivens In Maria

Ned Rorem (b. 1923)

Jesu that dost in Mary dwell
Be in thy servants' hearts as well,
In the spirit of thy holiness,
In the fullness of thy force and stress,
In the very ways that thy life goes
And virtues that thy pattern shows,
In sharing of thy mysteries;
And every power in us that is
Against that power put under feet
In the Holy Ghost the Paraclete
To the glory of God the Father. Amen

The Offertory Anthem and Communion Motet are both taken from his Three Motets on Poems of Gerard Manley Hopkins. The Choir first sang these pieces on Rorem’s 93rd birthday in 2016. • The Prelude to this service is one of the final pieces written by Hubert Parry, who as Director of the Royal College of Music witnessed many of his pupils die in World War I.
