Anglican Chant: E. J. Hopkins

I am the saving health of my people saith the Lord God: out of whatsoever tribulation they shall pray to me, I will surely hear them; and I will be their God for ever and ever. Hear my law, O my people: incline your ears unto the words of my mouth.

– Ps. 37: 39,40,20; Ps. 78

Hymn 555: “Lead on, O King eternal”

Lancashire, stand

Opening Sentences

Priest: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for Purity

Priest: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria in excelsis (Hymnal S 278)

All: Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God’s people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Priest: Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People: Amen.

The Lessons

Lector: A Reading from The Second Letter to Timothy. (4: 6-8, 16-18) sit

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing. At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 84: 1-6

1 How dear to me is your dwelling, O Lord of hosts!
My soul has a desire and longing for the courts of the Lord;
my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.

2 The sparrow has found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young;
by the side of your altars, O Lord of hosts,
my King and my God.

3 Happy are they who dwell in your house!
they will always be praising you.

4 Happy are the people whose strength is in you!
whose hearts are set on the pilgrims' way.

5 Those who go through the desolate valley will find it a place of springs, for the early rains have covered it with pools of water.

6 They will climb from height to height,
and the God of gods will reveal himself in Zion.

All: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Hymn 553: "Fight the good fight with all thy might" Rushford, stand

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
(18: 9-14)

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus told his parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

By your Spirit, help us make the power of the cross known to all, that people everywhere may see your great light. For this we pray to you, O Lord:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: Lift from all people the burdens of poverty, war and injustice. Break every rod of oppression throughout the earth. For this we pray to you, O Lord:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: Guide those who make and execute our laws, and those who maintain our safety, that all people may know their worth as your creation. For this we pray to you, O Lord:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: Strengthen us to care for the poor, the imprisoned, the victims of natural disasters, and all who suffer. Open our hands and hearts to embrace all who are in need, especially the people served by our ministry partners: Beyond Housing, Bravelly, Episcopal City Mission, The Haven of Grace and Outreach Haiti. For this we pray to you, O Lord:

For this we pray to you, O Lord:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: We remember before you all whom we love but see no more, especially Richard Braznell, The Rev. Bill Evans and Bill Timberlake, and Libby Weinman and Helen Hetlage. Give them eternal rest. For this we pray to you, O Lord:

People: Lord, have mercy.

Priest: Accept, O God, our thanks and praise for all the blessings of this life, and above all for the great mercies and promises given to us in Christ our Lord. By your Holy Spirit, show us how to serve you today, that all may know you by our love, through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

Priest: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
All: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Absolution

Priest: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

Voluntary: Toccata in Seven

John Rutter (b. 1945)

The sung setting of the Eucharist is the Communion Service, Op. 71 by William Mathias (1934–1992).

MUSIC NOTES: The impressive career of composer John Rutter (b. 1945) began when he was an undergraduate at Clare College, Cambridge. David Willcocks, director of music at the nearby King’s College, asked Rutter to bring him some carols that he had composed. The rest, as they say, is history. Together Willcocks and Rutter edited five volumes of the blockbuster Carols for Choirs series. Rutter has been highly successful as a composer, conductor, editor, and recording producer ever since. • Jean Berger (1909–2002), born Arthur Schloßberg in Westphalia, had a widely varied career in music. He was working at an opera house in Germany in 1933 when he fled to Paris. It is there he adopted the French name Jean Berger. After working in Rio de Janeiro, Berger became an American citizen in 1943. He worked in the Office of War Information, and then for CBS and NBC. His academic career began in 1948 and took him to Vermont, Illinois, and Colorado. The eyes of all wait upon thee has become a staple of the choral repertoire.

*The altar flowers are given to the glory of God in loving memory of Libby Weinman and Helen Hetlage,

ALL SAINTS AND ALL SOULS

All Saints' Day is celebrated by the Church every year on November 1st and is followed on November 2nd by All Souls' Day. The feast of All Saints' is an ancient tradition that celebrates all the saints, known and unknown, throughout the generations. All Souls' Day is the commemoration of all the faithful departed. Many churches combine the two celebrations into one for all those in our lives who have been examples of "virtuous and godly living." We all have known saints in our lives, those unique people who have pointed the way to God through love, kindness, courage, mercy, and compassion.

During the services of Holy Eucharist on Sunday, November 3rd, we will give thanks for all the saints, those known to the Church and those known only to us, as we remember them in the Prayers of the People.

Please list the names of those saints whom you wish to remember. You may go to our website (www.stpetersepiscope.org) to submit names or place this sheet in the offering plate today. In order to list all names in the bulletin they must be submitted by Monday, October 28th.
